Out of the office next week

May 31, 2013 at 8:50 AM

Well, I'm finally going to Italy. Can you believe it? It's been a dream of mine since high school.

This is a simple connected tab that sets the on tab to the content clock to visually connect them and is best for grouping content inside a panel or page.

This disconnected tab style is good for cases where tab controls the whole screen or panel, like in the case of a toolbar.

The screenshot shows a user interface with a dark theme. On the left, there's a sidebar containing 'Categories' and 'Tags' links, with 'Categories' being underlined. The main content area has a header bar with icons for refresh, search, settings, and a menu. Below the header is a list of items, each consisting of a title, a date ('11/05/11'), and a short description. The first item in the list is highlighted with a blue background.
